MESSIAH
LESSON NUMBER 3

JESUS THE MESSIAH

Jesus Christ, who is the Center and Heart of the Bible and history, is also the Center and Heart of the life of a Christian. Our eternal destiny is in His hands. Our acceptance or rejection of Him determines for each of us eternal glory (which is Heaven), or eternal ruin (which is Hell).

As we look into the first four gospels in the New Testament, we see not merely a biography of Jesus Christ, but a personality. He is portrayed as KING in MATTHEW; SERVANT in MARK; MAN in LUKE; and GOD in JOHN.

Although the four gospels are designedly incomplete as a story, they are divinely complete as a revelation. We may not through them know everything He did, but we may know Him, the Doer! The gospel writers never describe Christ, they set Him forth. They tell us almost nothing about what they thought of Him, they let Him speak and act for Himself. This is the essential respect in which these gospels differ from a mere biography. “The words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.” (John 6:63) The student in whom dwells an ungrieved spirit, finds here the Living Christ.

The numbers at the end of each question indicate the chapter and verse of the Gospel of John in which the answer is found. Find the answer and write it as clearly and as briefly as possible in the space provided.
